

ELEGANT WEDDING AT AMHERST C. H.

Miss Anna Rose Robertson the Bride of Mr. George F.
Sprague.

A BRILLIANT CHURCH SCENE

They Will Reside in Twin Falls City, Idaho, the Home of the Groom.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
AMHERST, VA., October 11.—The wedding of Miss Anna Rose Robertson, of this place, to Mr. George F. Sprague, of Twin Falls, Idaho, which took place in Ascension Episcopal Church here to-night, was one of the most elaborate weddings ever seen in Amherst. The beautiful ceremony of the Episcopal Church was performed by Dr. R. J. McBryde, of Lexington, a relative of the bride, assisted by Rev. A. P. Gray, rector of Ascension Church. The church was lavishly decorated with roses, chrysanthemums and cosmos. The bride carried Bride roses, and the bridesmaids were dressed in white, with pink sashes. Lohengrin and Rubenstein's "Thou Art So Like a Flower" were softly played by Miss Kate Troy during the ceremony.

At 5:30 the bride, dressed in white silk and lace, in train, and wearing pearls, entered on the arm of her brother, Mr. Archibald Robertson, who gave her away. They were met at the altar by the groom, with Mr. Thomas Sprague, of New York, who acted as best man. They were married with a ring, according to the Episcopal ceremony. The bridesmaids were Misses Jean M. Robertson, Miss Lillian Strode, Miss Eliza Payne and Sallie Dearborn, of Amherst; Ellen C. Brown, of Arrington; Sue Sprague, of New York; Ruth Alexander, of Danville, and Louise Cabell, of Galt's Mills. Miss Bessie Robertson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The ushers were Messrs. Frank Hopper, of Baltimore; Thomas B. Robertson, of Eastville, Va.; Thomas M. Robertson, of High Point, N. C.; Sam Scott, of Amherst; T. Macon Waller, of High Point; Lewis Brown, of Arrington, Va.; W. K. Allen, of Amherst, and Arthur P. Gray, of the University of Virginia. The flower girls were Elizabeth C. Ambler and Martha Waller Robertson, who wore frocks of white, with pink ribbons, and carried baskets of white and pink flowers. After the ceremony was over a reception was given at the home of the bride's mother to the bridal party and the relatives of the families. The couple left on the 12 o'clock train over the Southern Railway for an extensive trip, to include Boston, Canada and other points. From thence they will go to their future home in Twin Falls City, Idaho, by way of Salt Lake City.

The bride is a well known Virginia social favorite, and is the fourth daughter of Mrs. Martha Robertson, of this place. For several years past she has taught art in a female seminary in Boise, Idaho. She has quite a good deal of artistic talent, and one of her paintings, which was on exhibition in the Idaho building at the St. Louis Exposition, attracted a good deal of notice. The groom is a native of New York, but for a number of years past has made his home in Idaho. He has been very successful as a real estate dealer, and has large real estate holdings in the rising city of Twin Falls, Idaho.

The out-of-town guests were Miss Lucy Wormley, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Garland, Misses Maudie Garland and Louise Waller, of Lynchburg; Mrs. James Waller, of High Point, N. C.; Judge and Mrs. J. Thompson Brown, of Arrington; Mrs. E. C. Ambler, of West Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. Sprague, of New York; Miss Sallie and Mr. Meredith Waller, of Forest Hill, and Miss Louella Miller, of Lynchburg.

Pleasants—Bunting.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., October 11.—Miss Emily Virginia Bunting, the daughter of Captain Richard P. Bunting, of Portsmouth, and Ernest S. Pleasants, of Charlotte, N. C., were married this afternoon by Rev. J. N. Latham, pastor of the Monumental Methodist Church, Portsmouth. After a honeymoon journey in the North, they will reside in Charlotte.

Lemen—Payne.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINCHESTER, VA., October 11.—Deputy Sheriff James A. Lemen, of Berkeley county, W. Va., and Miss Almira E. Payne, of the same vicinity, came to Winchester to-day and were married at the Taylor Hotel by Rev. Dr. James R. Graham, pastor emeritus of the Presbyterian Church. Miss Catherine Lemen, sister of the groom, was maid of honor, and M. Davies Payne, brother of the bride, was best man.

The bride and groom left to-night for an eastern tour, after which they will reside at Martinsburg, W. Va.

Garments For Immediate Service.

We are making during the present week a special and very noteworthy display of garments for immediate service. These showings represent the higher types of style and of general experience; they stand for advanced ideas in everything except prices.

You will be interested in these—

Japanese Kimonos.....	$1.00 to $12.00
Evening Coats.....	$35.00 to $60.00
Tailored Dresses.....	$15.00 to $45.00
Walking Skirts.....	$5.00 to $12.00
Silk Vests.....	$3.50 to $10.00
New Furs, latest shapes.....	$4.50 to $20.00
Lakewee Rugs, Druggists, Lace Curtains, etc.

Fourquarean, Temple & Co.

THE WEDDING OF MR. MINOR LEWIS.

Miss Jannette E. Hancock Became His Bride Yesterday at Keswick.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., October 11.—Mr. Minor Lewis, of Harrisonburg, Va., editor of the Old Dominion Sun and nephew of Judge L. L. Lewis, the Republican candidate for Governor of Virginia, and Miss Jannette E. Hancock, daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. Charles Hancock, of Keswick, this county, were married at noon to-day at South Plains Presbyterian Church, Keswick, the officiating clergyman being the Rev. J. C. Painter, of Hillsboro, Va.

THE ATTENDANTS.
The matron of honor was Mrs. Duff Green Porter, sister of the bride. She was gowned in pale gray voile, violet hat and carried white carnations. Miss Frankie Hancock, cousin of the bride, was first bridesmaid. The other bridesmaids were Miss Sallie Pugh and Miss Fannie Long, each gowned in white voile, white pictures hats and carrying pink carnations. Mr. Sheffey Lewis, Jr., brother of the groom, was best man, and the groomsmen, Messrs. John Hancock, of Hamlet, N. C.; James Johnston, of Harrisonburg, and Lewis Smith, of Washington.

COSTUME OF BRIDE.
The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. John Hancock. She was gowned in white tailor-made costume, long coat, white hat and carried bride's bouquet of ferns and white carnations. Her only ornament was a handsome pearl and diamond pin, a gift of the groom. Her traveling dress was a dark blue cloth suit, coat and hat to match.

A reception followed the ceremony, from 1 to 3 o'clock, given by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Hancock, at the residence of Dr. F. L. Thurman.

The bridal tour will consist of a trip to several northern cities, returning by water to Norfolk and Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will reside in Harrisonburg.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Lewis, father and mother of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Green, Misses Hancock, Mrs. M. C. Hatch, Miss Nan Coleman and the Messrs. Lewis.

Downing—Cook.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FRONT ROYAL, VA., October 11.—S. Byrne Downing and Miss Kathleen Cook were married last evening at 6 o'clock in the Presbyterian Church here, Rev. J. A. McClure officiating. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was Louise Cook, Jr., was attended by Mrs. Walter Almond, of Baltimore, matron of honor, while the groom was attended by his brother, John H. Downing. The ushers were: S. G. Waller, M. B. Turner, Frank P. Evans, of Washington, D. C.; Charles White, Dr. L. F. Hansbrough and M. C. Richardson, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Downing, after a tour of the northern cities, will make their future home here.

Apperson—Williams.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., October 11.—The large auditorium of the Court street Methodist Church was filled this afternoon by friends and relatives to witness the marriage of Miss Sallie Dancer Williams, of this place, a daughter of the late James T. Williams, to Mr. Allen James Apperson, of Marion, Va., who is the electrical inspector for the Southern Railway System. The marriage was celebrated at 6 o'clock, and the bride and groom left for their future home at Martinsburg, W. Va.

A Good Subject

for thought at this season is COAL, even if you don't need as much now as you will later on. The provident householder will discover that he can lay in a supply now with less trouble and at less cost than when everybody wants it in a hurry. Figure out the difference in price on an interest basis, and see if we're not right. Glad to have your orders any time, of course.

ANTHRACITE, all sizes, at summer prices.
SEMI LUMP at summer prices.
SEMI LUMP at summer prices.
NEW RIVER LUMP and STEAM at summer prices.
FIRE CRACK LUMP and STEAM at summer prices.
POCAHONTAS LUMP and STEAM at summer prices.
DOMESTIC COKE at summer prices.

Oak and Pine Wood.
Long, sawed and kindling, in any length.
Phone us; you will find our prices right.

Nelson & Ladd,
Phone 1096. Office: 1710 East Broad Street.

AMHERST NEGRO TO GRAND JURY

Evidence Not Strong, But the Prosecution Scores a Point.

MRS. BROWN ON THE STAND

Tells of the Assault But Does Not Identify the Prisoner.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
AMHERST, VA., October 11.—The preliminary hearing of James Watson, the negro barber, on the charge of criminally assaulting Mrs. Frank W. Brown, of this place, on the night of October 1, 1905, took place before Justice W. B. Henley in the courthouse at this place to-day. The witnesses were examined in a room from which all persons except the court, the prisoner, the stenographer, the lawyers and the newspaper reporters were excluded. The Commonwealth was represented by Commonwealth's Attorney Otto L. Evans. Mr. W. K. Allen also appeared in the same behalf. Ex-Judge C. J. Campbell represented the prisoner. A stenographer, employed by the prisoner, was present to take down the evidence. The Commonwealth did not examine but three of the dozen or more witnesses which it had summoned. These were Mr. Brown, the husband of the assaulted woman; Mrs. Brown, the woman assaulted, and John Bristow. At the conclusion of the hearing the justice announced that there was a strong suspicion of guilt, and that he would send the case on to the grand jury. The prisoner was sent back to Lynchburg this afternoon, from which place he was brought over by Deputy Sheriff Henry L. Higgenbotham this morning, for safekeeping. Mrs. Brown did not appear in court until the case was ready for trial. She is a young woman, twenty-three years of age, and quite good looking. She seemed very nervous, and stated that she was suffering from the blow received on the back of her head, and that her hearing was constantly ringing. The moment Mrs. Brown came into the room she fastened her eyes on Watson and looked at him for several seconds. What conclusion she reached as to his being the man did not appear, as she was not asked to identify the prisoner as an assailant.

She had stated on the night of the assault that Branch's dog had gone to the house of Watson, that she had said that Watson was not the man who committed the assault, and that she had said that the assault was darker than his. The evidence of Mr. Brown was that he and his wife left the house about the same time, she going to milking and he to water his horses. As his horses were drinking at the well, which is about three hundred yards from the house, he saw his wife going on to the house. He brought his horse back to the stable and just before he reached the stable he met Watson coming up the lane from the direction where the assault was committed. Bristow testified that Watson, after Brown met him, came into the barber shop and stayed only a minute or so, and then shut up the shop and went back down the alley in the direction of the scene of the assault. Mrs. Brown's evidence was about the same that has been before reported. She says that the man came upon her so suddenly that she could not get away. When she came to herself she was lying in the bushes. When she raised herself, and seeing the light at Watson's cabin, not fifty yards away, called for help as loud as she could. No help came, and she crawled in the direction of home, and was still crawling when her husband found her.

The prisoner questioned Mr. Brown as to who saw Branch's dog go to Watson's house, and it is possible that an effort will be made to prove that the dog did not go there, as it is said that this is claimed by Watson's wife. When she came to herself she was lying in the bushes. When she raised herself, and seeing the light at Watson's cabin, not fifty yards away, called for help as loud as she could. No help came, and she crawled in the direction of home, and was still crawling when her husband found her.

The prisoner questioned Mr. Brown as to who saw Branch's dog go to Watson's house, and it is possible that an effort will be made to prove that the dog did not go there, as it is said that this is claimed by Watson's wife. When she came to herself she was lying in the bushes. When she raised herself, and seeing the light at Watson's cabin, not fifty yards away, called for help as loud as she could. No help came, and she crawled in the direction of home, and was still crawling when her husband found her.

The prisoner questioned Mr. Brown as to who saw Branch's dog go to Watson's house, and it is possible that an effort will be made to prove that the dog did not go there, as it is said that this is claimed by Watson's wife. When she came to herself she was lying in the bushes. When she raised herself, and seeing the light at Watson's cabin, not fifty yards away, called for help as loud as she could. No help came, and she crawled in the direction of home, and was still crawling when her husband found her.

The prisoner questioned Mr. Brown as to who saw Branch's dog go to Watson's house, and it is possible that an effort will be made to prove that the dog did not go there, as it is said that this is claimed by Watson's wife. When she came to herself she was lying in the bushes. When she raised herself, and seeing the light at Watson's cabin, not fifty yards away, called for help as loud as she could. No help came, and she crawled in the direction of home, and was still crawling when her husband found her.

The prisoner questioned Mr. Brown as to who saw Branch's dog go to Watson's house, and it is possible that an effort will be made to prove that the dog did not go there, as it is said that this is claimed by Watson's wife. When she came to herself she was lying in the bushes. When she raised herself, and seeing the light at Watson's cabin, not fifty yards away, called for help as loud as she could. No help came, and she crawled in the direction of home, and was still crawling when her husband found her.

The prisoner questioned Mr. Brown as to who saw Branch's dog go to Watson's house, and it is possible that an effort will be made to prove that the dog did not go there, as it is said that this is claimed by Watson's wife. When she came to herself she was lying in the bushes. When she raised herself, and seeing the light at Watson's cabin, not fifty yards away, called for help as loud as she could. No help came, and she crawled in the direction of home, and was still crawling when her husband found her.

The prisoner questioned Mr. Brown as to who saw Branch's dog go to Watson's house, and it is possible that an effort will be made to prove that the dog did not go there, as it is said that this is claimed by Watson's wife. When she came to herself she was lying in the bushes. When she raised herself, and seeing the light at Watson's cabin, not fifty yards away, called for help as loud as she could. No help came, and she crawled in the direction of home, and was still crawling when her husband found her.

The prisoner questioned Mr. Brown as to who saw Branch's dog go to Watson's house, and it is possible that an effort will be made to prove that the dog did not go there, as it is said that this is claimed by Watson's wife. When she came to herself she was lying in the bushes. When she raised herself, and seeing the light at Watson's cabin, not fifty yards away, called for help as loud as she could. No help came, and she crawled in the direction of home, and was still crawling when her husband found her.

The prisoner questioned Mr. Brown as to who saw Branch's dog go to Watson's house, and it is possible that an effort will be made to prove that the dog did not go there, as it is said that this is claimed by Watson's wife. When she came to herself she was lying in the bushes. When she raised herself, and seeing the light at Watson's cabin, not fifty yards away, called for help as loud as she could. No help came, and she crawled in the direction of home, and was still crawling when her husband found her.

The prisoner questioned Mr. Brown as to who saw Branch's dog go to Watson's house, and it is possible that an effort will be made to prove that the dog did not go there, as it is said that this is claimed by Watson's wife. When she came to herself she was lying in the bushes. When she raised herself, and seeing the light at Watson's cabin, not fifty yards away, called for help as loud as she could. No help came, and she crawled in the direction of home, and was still crawling when her husband found her.

The prisoner questioned Mr. Brown as to who saw Branch's dog go to Watson's house, and it is possible that an effort will be made to prove that the dog did not go there, as it is said that this is claimed by Watson's wife. When she came to herself she was lying in the bushes. When she raised herself, and seeing the light at Watson's cabin, not fifty yards away, called for help as loud as she could. No help came, and she crawled in the direction of home, and was still crawling when her husband found her.

The prisoner questioned Mr. Brown as to who saw Branch's dog go to Watson's house, and it is possible that an effort will be made to prove that the dog did not go there, as it is said that this is claimed by Watson's wife. When she came to herself she was lying in the bushes. When she raised herself, and seeing the light at Watson's cabin, not fifty yards away, called for help as loud as she could. No help came, and she crawled in the direction of home, and was still crawling when her husband found her.

The prisoner questioned Mr. Brown as to who saw Branch's dog go to Watson's house, and it is possible that an effort will be made to prove that the dog did not go there, as it is said that this is claimed by Watson's wife. When she came to herself she was lying in the bushes. When she raised herself, and seeing the light at Watson's cabin, not fifty yards away, called for help as loud as she could. No help came, and she crawled in the direction of home, and was still crawling when her husband found her.

The prisoner questioned Mr. Brown as to who saw Branch's dog go to Watson's house, and it is possible that an effort will be made to prove that the dog did not go there, as it is said that this is claimed by Watson's wife. When she came to herself she was lying in the bushes. When she raised herself, and seeing the light at Watson's cabin, not fifty yards away, called for help as loud as she could. No help came, and she crawled in the direction of home, and was still crawling when her husband found her.

The prisoner questioned Mr. Brown as to who saw Branch's dog go to Watson's house, and it is possible that an effort will be made to prove that the dog did not go there, as it is said that this is claimed by Watson's wife. When she came to herself she was lying in the bushes. When she raised herself, and seeing the light at Watson's cabin, not fifty yards away, called for help as loud as she could. No help came, and she crawled in the direction of home, and was still crawling when her husband found her.

The prisoner questioned Mr. Brown as to who saw Branch's dog go to Watson's house, and it is possible that an effort will be made to prove that the dog did not go there, as it is said that this is claimed by Watson's wife. When she came to herself she was lying in the bushes. When she raised herself, and seeing the light at Watson's cabin, not fifty yards away, called for help as loud as she could. No help came, and she crawled in the direction of home, and was still crawling when her husband found her.

The prisoner questioned Mr. Brown as to who saw Branch's dog go to Watson's house, and it is possible that an effort will be made to prove that the dog did not go there, as it is said that this is claimed by Watson's wife. When she came to herself she was lying in the bushes. When she raised herself, and seeing the light at Watson's cabin, not fifty yards away, called for help as loud as she could. No help came, and she crawled in the direction of home, and was still crawling when her husband found her.

The prisoner questioned Mr. Brown as to who saw Branch's dog go to Watson's house, and it is possible that an effort will be made to prove that the dog did not go there, as it is said that this is claimed by Watson's wife. When she came to herself she was lying in the bushes. When she raised herself, and seeing the light at Watson's cabin, not fifty yards away, called for help as loud as she could. No help came, and she crawled in the direction of home, and was still crawling when her husband found her.

The prisoner questioned Mr. Brown as to who saw Branch's dog go to Watson's house, and it is possible that an effort will be made to prove that the dog did not go there, as it is said that this is claimed by Watson's wife. When she came to herself she was lying in the bushes. When she raised herself, and seeing the light at Watson's cabin, not fifty yards away, called for help as loud as she could. No help came, and she crawled in the direction of home, and was still crawling when her husband found her.

This Enormous Sale

a Sure Sign of Excellence.

1540 Million Bottles

Budweiser sold since 1875. This exceeds the output of all other bottled beers. There must be some reason for this popularity, and if you will taste a bottle of Budweiser you'll know for yourself.

Budweiser
"King of Beers"

Budweiser is brewed and bottled only at the home plant of the

Anheuser-Busch Brewing Ass'n
St. Louis, U. S. A.

Orders Promptly Filled by

Jos. Stumpf, Mgr., Anheuser-Busch Branch, Richmond, Va.

NORFOLK CITIZEN FELLED BY SAILOR

Railroad Quarantine Against New Orleans Has Been Raised.

MAY PUNISH WIFE-BEATERS

Negro Editor Enters Two Motions Which Court Takes Under Consideration.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., October 11.—Jerry Coleman, a merchant tailor, is at St. Vincent's Hospital, suffering from a concussion of the brain, unconscious and in a precarious condition. He was knocked down by L. E. E. Emerson, a United States sailor, and in falling his head struck the curbstone of the pavement. Emerson is held to await the result of Coleman's injuries.

QUARANTINE LIFTED.
The quarantine that has been in force for several weeks against New Orleans and other Southern ports infected with yellow fever, has been raised, and to-day trains came in without an examination of passengers by medical officers.

EDITOR IN JAIL.
J. E. Dickerson, colored, the editor of the New York Advertiser, appeared to-day before the Corporation Court to-day for two motions, both of which were taken under advisement. He asked for a new trial on the ground that the instructions to the jury were erroneous, and for release on bail. His attorney contended that a prisoner was held until convicted, and that he was not convicted until sentence had been passed by the court. He had three contentions against the instructions, one of which was that the prisoner was not allowed to declare that he had no malice against the woman choir singer whom he had denounced in a special article, and declared that she should not be in the church. He was returned to jail, where he was sent yesterday for sixty days on the conviction of criminal libel.

WIFE DESERTION CASES.
Judge Allan R. Hance, of the Corporation Court, announced to-day that the police justice was the proper magistrate to commit the men charged with wife desertion under the new law. The decision was announced in the case of Arthur Hewitt, who was required in the court yesterday to give a bond of $100 to pay $100 to his wife, and to stay in jail until he is prepared to give the bond. Heretofore the police justice has been sending such cases to the grand jury for indictment. Now, under the new ruling, the police justice will have a preliminary hearing in all cases of wife desertion, in cases of other felonies, in order to determine whether they should be referred to the grand jury for indictment. But the grand jury will still have the right to indict in the case of wife desertion without any preliminary action of the Police Court.

Bon Air Notes.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BON AIR, VA., Oct. 11.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Burnett will make their home this winter with Mrs. J. E. Cox, Jr. Mr. Burnett has just returned from Memorial Hospital. He is rapidly convalescing.

Mr. L. B. Bass returned from Roanoke Friday. Mr. Bolling, of Atlanta, and Master John Randolph Bolling are guests at Colonel Talcott's.

Mr. P. J. Craigie, Jr., and children, spent Thursday with Mrs. Norman Morton. Mrs. A. L. Craigie will make their home this winter with Mrs. J. E. Cox, Jr. Mr. Burnett has just returned from Memorial Hospital. He is rapidly convalescing.

Mr. J. J. Craigie, Jr., and children, spent Thursday with Mrs. Norman Morton. Mrs. A. L. Craigie will make their home this winter with Mrs. J. E. Cox, Jr. Mr. Burnett has just returned from Memorial Hospital. He is rapidly convalescing.

Mr. J. J. Craigie, Jr., and children, spent Thursday with Mrs. Norman Morton. Mrs. A. L. Craigie will make their home this winter with Mrs. J. E. Cox, Jr. Mr. Burnett has just returned from Memorial Hospital. He is rapidly convalescing.

Mr. J. J. Craigie, Jr., and children, spent Thursday with Mrs. Norman Morton. Mrs. A. L. Craigie will make their home this winter with Mrs. J. E. Cox, Jr. Mr. Burnett has just returned from Memorial Hospital. He is rapidly convalescing.

Mr. J. J. Craigie, Jr., and children, spent Thursday with Mrs. Norman Morton. Mrs. A. L. Craigie will make their home this winter with Mrs. J. E. Cox, Jr. Mr. Burnett has just returned from Memorial Hospital. He is rapidly convalescing.

Mr. J. J. Craigie, Jr., and children, spent Thursday with Mrs. Norman Morton. Mrs. A. L. Craigie will make their home this winter with Mrs. J. E. Cox, Jr. Mr. Burnett has just returned from Memorial Hospital. He is rapidly convalescing.

Mr. J. J. Craigie, Jr., and children, spent Thursday with Mrs. Norman Morton. Mrs. A. L. Craigie will make their home this winter with Mrs. J. E. Cox, Jr. Mr. Burnett has just returned from Memorial Hospital. He is rapidly convalescing.

Mr. J. J. Craigie, Jr., and children, spent Thursday with Mrs. Norman Morton. Mrs. A. L. Craigie will make their home this winter with Mrs. J. E. Cox, Jr. Mr. Burnett has just returned from Memorial Hospital. He is rapidly convalescing.

Mr. J. J. Craigie, Jr., and children, spent Thursday with Mrs. Norman Morton. Mrs. A. L. Craigie will make their home this winter with Mrs. J. E. Cox, Jr. Mr. Burnett has just returned from Memorial Hospital. He is rapidly convalescing.

Mr. J. J. Craigie, Jr., and children, spent Thursday with Mrs. Norman Morton. Mrs. A. L. Craigie will make their home this winter with Mrs. J. E. Cox, Jr. Mr. Burnett has just returned from Memorial Hospital. He is rapidly convalescing.

R. H. BOSHER'S SONS,

15 S. Ninth Street.

...FALL GREETING...

In variety of design and perfection of finish, our Fall Offerings of HIGH-CLASS CARRIAGES excel the best results obtained in the past. Our Exhibit comprises BROUGHS, DEPOT ROOMS, SURREYS, PHAETONS, BUGGIES, &c. LAUNDRY, DRY GOODS, GROCERY AND PLEASURE WAGONS.

Preserve your carriages by having them repaired and repainted now.

The Broad Street Bank

Invites the patronage of all who desire the services of a thoroughly equipped, conservatively managed, banking institution.

Interviews and Correspondence Invited

The Nowlan Company

are headquarters for ELEGANT HORSE

SHOW NOVELTIES in FINE GOLD and

STERLING SILVER, and when quality is considered, their prices are the lowest

CONFEDERATE VETERAN HAS LEG CRUSHED

Serious Injury to a Spotsylvania
Man—Repairing Ancient Ancient Church.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., October 11.—Mr. F. Carter, of Spotsylvania county, had his leg crushed in a runaway accident, his leg being caught in the wheel of the vehicle. It was found that amputation was necessary, and Dr. Harris and Dew took off the leg. Mr. Carter is a Confederate soldier. He will recover.

The Newington branch of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities has secured a stonecutter from this city to repair and raise and enclose three old tombs at Mattaponi Church, in King and Queen county. This church is one of the four oldest churches in Virginia, a splendid specimen of colonial architecture, and well-preserved. The oldest tomb is that of Jacob Lumpkin, who died in 1783. George and Mary Braxton, parents of Carter Braxton, a signer of the Declaration of Independence, are buried in this old grave-yard.

At a tournament given in Prince William county a few days ago, at which Mr. Blake Chow, formerly of this city, was marshal, the successful knight was Mr. E. P. Heinkeken, who crowned Miss Jane Depauw Queen of Love and Beauty. One of the maids of honor was Miss Fannie Beverley, a daughter of Mr. Robert Beverley, of Essex county.

The farm, "Spring Garden," belonging to the estate of the late John W. Broadus, in Caroline county, containing 412 acres, was sold this week to Mr. E. P. Carter for $1200.

Mrs. William Oswald died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Adeline Morrison, in Spotsylvania county, after a lingering illness. She is survived by her husband, one daughter, three sons and a number of other relatives.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.
For the convenience of those desiring to attend the Horse Show at Richmond, the Southern Railway will continue to operate trains No. 117 and No. 118, between Richmond and Chase City, Va., until October 15th. Leave Chase City 5:05 A. M.; returning, leave Richmond 6:00 P. M. daily, except Sunday.

C. W. WESTBURY.
D. P. A.

ONE WAY COLONISTS' RATES.
Via Chicago Great Western Railway, to points in Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, Washington, Alberta, and British Columbia. Tickets on sale September 15th to October 31st. Choice of routes. For further information apply to W. M. McConnell, T. P. A., 521 Bourne Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

CANCER HOSPITAL.
We want every man and woman in the United States to know what we are doing. We are curing Cancers, Tumors and Chronic Sores without the use of the knife, and are endorsed by the Senate and Legislature of Virginia. If you are seeking a cure, come here and you will get it. We guarantee our cures.

The Kellam Cancer Hospital.
RICHMOND, VA.

TWO NEW PLAYERS IN THE 'VARSITY LINE

The Team Works Hard On a Field That is Soaking Wet.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, VA., October 11.—Despite the heavy down-pour of rain to-day, the foot-ball team put in a stiff two hours' practice on Lam-beth Field. The ground was almost soaking wet, but the men were kept moving. Most of the time was consumed by signal practice, and finally the plays were rattled off at a pretty good pace, much to the satisfaction of Coach Cole, who is a stickler for speed.

Two new players were in the 'Varsity line-up—Shackelford, a guard, from the Augusta Military Academy, and Hiram Smith, who was given a trial at the track. Smith is a star member of the Virginia team, and last year broke the Virginia record in the 220 yard run. The only trouble with him is that he is rather light, and what Virginia wants most just now is weight.

The 'Varsity and scrub engaged in a half hour's scrimmage just before sunset, but on account of the slippery field it was not as fierce as usual. Some improvement was noted in the defensive work of the line men. It is safe to predict that Virginia will be much stronger in the line on Saturday than she was